Plagiarism Declaration

PLAGIARISM

This means that you present substantial portions or elements of another's work, ideas or data as your own, even if the original author is cited occasionally. A signed photocopy or other copy of the Declaration below must accompany every piece of work that you hand in.

1. I know that plagiarism is wrong. Plagiarism is to use the work of another and pass it off as my own.
2. I have used the American Psychological Association formatting for citation and referencing. Each significant contribution to, and quotation in, this essay/project/report from the work or works of other people has been attributed, cited and referenced.
3. This essay/project/report is my own work.
4. I have not allowed, and will not allow anyone to copy my work with the intention of passing it off as their own work.
